

Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Science and Technology University, Gopalganj
Department of International Relations
Course Title: History and Politics of Bangladesh
Course Code: IR154

Course Content

1. Prehistorical period and ancient Janapadas of Bengal
2. History of ancient Bengal (Gupta Empire, Mourya Empire, Pala Dynasty, Sena Dynasty)
3. Islamization process and Muslim rule in Bengal (from middle age to Mughal Empire)
4. Colonialism and British rule (Establishment of trade post, Colonial encounters, Battle of Plassey, Dual government system and its impacts, Permanent Settlement, anti-colonial movements, Bengal division, Partition of India)
5. Pakistan experiences (Language movement, United Front and electoral politics, Ayub Khan regime and military dictatorship, Basic democracy, Six Points Programme, national elections in 1970 and subsequent events)
6. War of Independence (Fronts of war, Cold War and great powers politics, Role of great powers, Homecoming of Bangabandhu)
7. Bangabandhu and foreign policy of Bangladesh (Foundation and principles of foreign policy, role of Bangabandhu as the architect of foreign policy of Bangladesh, relevance of Bangabandhu's foreign policy legacy in the contemporary times)
8. Challenges before Bangladesh in the post-independence era (internal and external dynamics, war-torn economy, political division, August 1975 and subsequent military regimes, parliamentary democracy and subsequent events)
9. Achievements of Bangladesh in the last 52 years